

Professional Development Program + Internship Additional Academic Year (12 months)

- Professional guidance into the job market
- Gaining work experience in your field of interest through an internship or volunteering work
- Student status

Main Benefits

- Additional credits
- Gaining work experience and being enrolled as a SUMAS student (Increased chances to be accepted in companies, international organizations or NGOs)
- Personal advice and development of skills in job search and improvement of personal branding
- All advantages associated with student status and student card
- Access and active engagement with the SUMAS Alumni network
- Non-EU students can extend the VISA

Program Content - On campus or via web conferencing

- Personal tutoring while working as an intern in a company or international organization or NGO
- Regular career coaching meetings with the Career Counselor to define personalized job search strategies and support with preparing CVs, cover letters and application documents
- Individual coaching for interviews and accompanying the application process
- Participation in SUMAS career related and professional development courses
- Involvement into ongoing SUMAS professional projects
- Attending company visits and SUMAS experiential camps
- Access to SUMAS sustainability research database
- Attending courses, guest lecturers, expert talks, conferences and workshops organized by SUMAS

Program Cost

- Professional Development Program: 7'600 CHF
- Professional Development Program + Internship: 9'900 CHF

For more information, please contact:

Joachim Fendt-Newlin

Email: jfendt-newlin@sumas.ch