

Learning Outcomes Master of Arts in Management Sustainable Tourism:

Specifically, at the end of the program students will be able to:

- Apply and demonstrate awareness of advanced concepts of sustainable management
- Autonomously manage the complexities of responsible tourism and develop sound understanding of issues in inter-organizational relationships
- Critically analyze the impact of business operations on environment and society and develop innovative solutions for sustainable development
- Use a holistic approach in business