

Learning Outcomes Master of Business Administration in Finance and Responsible Investment:

Specifically, at the end of the program students will be able to:

- To demonstrate awareness of concepts of sustainability management and responsible investment
- Autonomously manage the complexities of responsible investment and financial decisions in organizations
- To find innovative solutions for complex business challenges through the use of a holistic approach
- Take decisions applying both quantitative and qualitative tools